CHEER THEM ON

HEADMASTER'S MESSAGE

We have come again to celebrate that time-honored competition between "the oldest school" and "the oldest high school." I wish to welcome everyone to another great moment in time. Regardless of this season's wins/losses, THE game is today. It is November-Thanksgiving-and as the athletes of Boston Latin School and the English High School do battle, we give thanks for this ancient rivalry and we honor the young people who participate in this tradition now, as well as those from the past. Many are present in the stadium today.

For a number of years, EHS Head Master Jose Duarte has consistently thrown down the gauntlet on behalf of the bulldogs. Never one to crumble before a challenge, purple pride has continued to triumph. I would expect nothing less! Best wishes to him and to the English High School community. We all appreciate and expect good sportsmanship on the field and among the spectators. There exists, indeed, a deep and abiding pride and respect that each school has for the other.

My special thanks to the Latin School coaches, team members, cheerleaders , Step Squad, Football Band, alumni, parents and fans who regularly and consistently show their devotion to BLS athletics. The BLSA Varsity Club also provides support for and recognition of our athletes. Taking pride in the history of both schools includes a need to shout out support for the great purple and white!

The only real concern this year is Michael Contompasis, Superintendent of the Boston Public Schools. For whom will he cheer? A true dilemma but one easily resolved.

Relax, enjoy, have fun but remember – GO WOLFPACK! BOMB THE BLUE!

SUMUS PRIMI!

LATIN FIGHT SONG

On the Field of Many Colors
Latin's banners fly
Cheer on,
cheer like volley thunder
Echoes to the sky
See the Latin team advancing
Gaining more and more
So we'll fight, fight, fight
With all our might
Dear Old Latin evermore.

Dear Students, Staff, Alumni and Friends,

Thanksgiving is an opportunity for us to come together with our friends and families, to show gratitude for all that we have been given, and to rekindle a long-standing football rivalry. The Gridiron Classic is an annual tradition that celebrates the spirit of athletic competition, sportsmanship, and academic excellence.

The English High School and Boston Latin School are two schools with extensive histories and rich traditions. I am proud to serve as the Headmaster of The English High School, and I am grateful for all the remarkable students and staff of our school community. I thank our athletic coaches for their effort and dedication, and I want to recognize The English High School football team. Block crisply, tackle hard, play well, and make us proud. We believe in you!

Finally, I send best wishes to Headmaster Kelley and the Boston Latin football team. Congratulations on your ongoing success.

I hope that everyone can join us for the game, and I wish you all a pleasant Thanksgiving.

Sincerely

Jose P. Duarte
Headmaster
